Hoffman Estates, IL –State Rep. Fred Crespo (D-Hoffman Estates) is partnering with the Illinois Student Assistance Commission (ISAC) to hold College Preparedness Day on Saturday, February 4th from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Streamwood High School to assist students and parents prepare for higher education.

“Students are the leaders of the future, and this event will properly equip them to successfully transition from high school to college,” said Crespo. “The event will provide many resources for both students and parents, and provide a great start on the college planning process.”

The free event will include a FAFSA completion seminar and six smaller breakout sessions ranging from College 101 to breaking down a college application. Also in attendance will be local institutions of higher education for students and parents to speak with and ask questions. Each session will be available in both English and Spanish and allow students to gain a better understanding of what it takes to get ready for the next step. For those wishing to complete a FAFSA form, it is strongly suggested they visit www.fafsa.ed.gov to receive the full list of required documents needed to complete the form.

“The earlier students and parents start the planning process, the more successful and prepared they will be,” Crespo said. “From filling out FAFSA forms to speaking with local colleges, this is a one-stop shop for students and parents to get ready for the next step. All area students and parents are encouraged to attend this event, because it is never too early to start planning for college.”
