Crespo Helps Consumers Reduce Phone Bills, Save Money

HOFFMAN ESTATES, IL – State Rep. Fred Crespo (D-Hoffman Estates) partnered with the Citizens Utility Board (CUB) on Wednesday to host a free phone bill clinic in an effort to help residents save money on their bills.

“Reducing costs and saving money allows my constituents to keep some of their hard earned money,” Crespo said. “This was a great event that educated local residents on how to reduce their phone bills.”

The event provided residents the opportunity to save on their phone bills and other general cost-saving measures. The free phone bill clinic gave attendees the chance to bring their utility bills and sit down one-on-one with a CUB representative. The Citizens Utility Board is a consumer protection agency tasked with providing free resources and programs for residents across the state.

“Thanks to Rep. Crespo and CUB, I was able to identify possible ways to reduce my phone bill and save money,” said Richard Schaeffer of Streamwood. “It’s programs like these that help residents out the most. I hope Rep. Crespo continues to provide the district with more opportunities to cut costs and save money.”
